NOTE: Choosing “Peek” will give you very personal details about Cousin that are inside the envelope.

However, when you give her the envelope then she will know that you opened it without her permission and your relationship will END.

The whole point of things playing out like this is because of TRUST.

It's also to allow you, the player, to know something personal about Cousin that will change things between the two of you and your relationship with her.

By choosing “Don't peek”, both characters will be oblivious to the details inside the envelope and Cousin will decide to keep it that way.

But YOU the player will know the truth about their relationship if you play through both options ;)
